End of Terrace

Property Description

Keyhole Residential are delighted to welcome to the sale market this beautiful three bedroom end of terrace property situated in the popular location of The Drive, Concord, Washington.

This is a fantastic opportunity to purchase a lovingly maintained and much improved family home which offers spacious accommodation with the added bonus of a loft room with heating, power and a velux window. The property boasts recently installed UPVC double glazing and a combination boiler and has a generous front garden with parking for up to three cars along with a front porch.

Chicely located within walking distance of Concord town centre, which offers excellent links by public transport to Newcastle, Sunderland and beyond, the property is also within a 5 minute drive of both the A1 and A19 road networks which makes it ideal for those who travel across the North East region.
